It served as the first annual reunion and was much enjoyed. President Merrill being detained in Talledega, Ala., sent these greetings:
"Mrs. C. H. Phillips:
"I shall not reach Nashville in time to be at the meeting Thursday night, although I very greatly desire to be. Greetings to all.
"Very truly yours,
"J. G. MERRILL."

LAWN FETE AND PARLOR CONCERT.

Mrs. I. B. Scott and Dr. Josie Wells will give a lawn fete and parlor concert at 77 Maple street Saturday evening from 5 to 9 o'clock for the benefit of the Day Home and Kindergarten. All are invited and a profitable and pleasant time is promised.

JEFFERSONVILLE NOTES.

Miss Lizzie Reed has returned from a visit to Franklin.

Miss Kittie C. Howse had her closing exercises of St. Paul School last Friday night at Riddle Chapel. Quite a number of parents were present and enjoyed the exercises. Addresses were delivered by Mr. H. Black and Rev. H. H. Reed.

ESCAPED SERIOUS INJURY.

One day last week while Lawyer T. J. Ewing was breaking a young horse he was thrown from his buggy, and received painful though not serious injuries. It was found, however, that one finger of his left hand was dislocated. Although having recovered from the shock sustained at the time of the accident, he still carries his arm in a sling.

ENTERTAINED AT ARRINGTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Shedrick Lipscomb, of Arrington, entertained in honor of Miss Temple Johnson, of Nashville, on Sunday, May 26. The guests arrived early and enjoyed several beautiful selections of sacred music and a pleasant stroll through the woods, after which an elaborate dinner of several courses was served. Those who enjoyed the hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Lipscomb, Mr. and Mrs. House, Mr. and Mrs. Tomson, Lipscomb, Jr., Miss Temple Johnson, Miss Ora Greer, Miss Eva Green, Mr. Willie Lipscomb and Mr. Edward Lipscomb.

HENDERSONVILLE-ROCKLAND RALLY, HENDERSONVILLE, TENN.

The pastor and members of the Rockland Baptist Church wish to thank friends and donors in the rally on the third Sunday in May for helping us to demonstrate the greatest financial rally in the history of the church. Kindly come to see us again. We are yours very truly,

W. FITE, Sec.

BIG DAY AT SEAY CHAPEL.

Rev. A. Phillips, pastor of Seay Chapel, began a movement last Sunday to pay off all debts of that church. About $70.00 was realized. The rally is continued. The people have a mind to work and the charge is being looked after faithfully by Bro. Phillips. He promises to interest his people in the Globe.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONVENTION AT GALLATIN.

A convention of the Epworth League of the Tennessee Annual Conference Methodist Episcopal meets at Gallatin on June 12. A varied and interesting program is out. J. P. Price, of Union City, is president, Dr. E. W. S. Hammond first vice president. The Globe's advertising superintendent, Mr. W. F. Waters has been asked to deliver an address to the convention.

DEATH OF WESLEY DOUGLASS.

The death of Mr. Wesley Douglass, which occurred last Friday night at the home of his sister, Mrs. Sophia Sanders, on Winter street, occasioned deep sorrow and regret. Pneumonia was the cause of his death. Mr. Douglass was a devout Christian and a good citizen. He was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

Mr. Douglass belonged in Hendersonville, but had lived in Nashville for five or more years. Two daughters, Mrs. Chas. Brown and Mrs. John Dodson, two grand children, two sisters and a brother survive him. Funeral services were conducted last Sunday afternoon at the Methodist Church in Hendersonville by Rev. Mr. Crosby. The remains were interred in the family graveyard.

DAVIDSON COUNTY INSTITUTE.

The Davidson County Institute will open June 3, at Walden University and continue two weeks. The examinations will be held the 14th, 15th and 16th inst.

PRAYER-MEETING SERVICES.

The weekly prayer-meeting services that are usually conducted on Thursday evenings at the Tennessee School for the Blind, were as interesting last Thursday evening as ever, this being practically the last meeting for the term. Two visitors were present in the persons of Miss Georgia A. Bradford and Mr. Henry Allen Boyd, who were both well pleased with the spirit of the meeting.

DELIGHTFUL BIRTHDAY ENTERTAINMENT.

A delightful entertainment was that of Sunday afternoon, May 25, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. Johnson, of 1509 Fourteenth avenue, North, given in honor of their daughters, Ola and Josie. The dining-room was artistically decorated with ferns and cut flowers. The guests were escorted into the dining-room by little Miss Glenora Cannon, where a three-course menu was served, consisting of ices, cakes, candies and fruits. The children then retired to the lawn and enjoyed themselves by playing different games until a late hour. Those present were little Misses Marie and Marine Mayberry, Glenora Cannon, Flossie McClain, Lona Dodson, Mabel Wilson, Myrtle Phillips Green, Lola C. B. McGavock, Mabel Dickerson, Rosanetta Nelson, Annie L. Davis, Theora Davis, Julia Frances Johnson, Josie Johnson, Ola Johnson, Masters J. C. McClain, Fred Dodson, Jr., Odea Wilson.

SMYRNA NOTES.

Rev. D. Pearson came down from Laurelesboro and preached for us in our rally Sunday morning, and sent Rev. House to officiate at night. Class No. 1, taught by R. L. Perry, as she always does on such occasions, came out in the lead, notwithstanding the boasts of Mr. J. I. Wade, a faithful member of No. 2, taught by Miss E. M. Perry.

Mrs. Eva Snood, who has been in Earlington, Ky., since Christmas, arrived home Sunday morning.

Miss Fannie W. Smith has returned from the city.

Quite a large crowd attended the rally at Lavergne Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Trimble of that town is now reading the Globe. Others promise to begin soon.

The remains of Mr. Joe Walker, accompanied by friends and relatives, were brought up from the city Tuesday and buried near Sand Hill.

Miss Ellen Baker would not be without the Globe, and is using her influence to induce others to take it.

Mr. Alex. Wilson is on the sick list. Mr. Arthur Ross is improving.

The closing exercises of Sand Hill School will take place Friday night, June 7.
